Ancient Indian traders who went to countries of South East Asia sailed from the seaport of Mahabalipuram.

Sites to be visited:

- The Shore Temple (built in 700–728 AD): Named because it overlooks the shore of the Bay of Bengal. It is a structural temple, built with blocks of granite, dating from the 8th century AD. The Temple has been classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1984. It is one of the oldest
- Stone temple structure of South India. The Five Rathas, also known as Panch Rathas, is a set of rock temples. They are excellent examples of the evolution of Dravidian style architecture. These temples are built in the same shape as pagodas, and greatly resemble Buddhist shrines and monasteries. The rathas are associated with the great epic Mahabharata. Arjuna Penance, is a story from the Mahabharata of how Arjuna, one of the Pandava brothers, performed severe austerities in order to obtain Shiva's weapon. The idea, which pervades Hindu philosophy, is that one could obtain, by self-mortification, enough power even to overcome the gods Drive to Dakshina Chitra, Dakshinchitra is an attempt to preserve some of the traditional south Indian ways of life by constructing a "living" village containing some of the various traditional homes of south India.
